

MARANATHA

CAMP & RETREAT CENTER

My dear friends,

I love the beautiful fall colors. Camp is quiet in the transition from summer to retreat season. It has been a crazy year of many changes and so many God sightings. Our staff has changed a great deal. It is crazy to think of how many staff have come and gone in my time here. My prayer is that in the midst of the change, I will lean on God as my constant and my heart will be open to loving the new people even as it hurts to see people that I love leave.

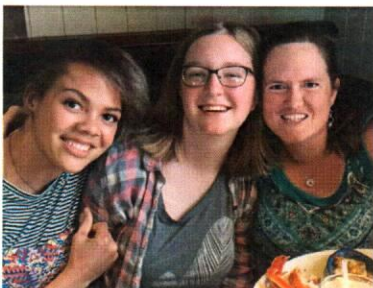

God is working. We have made many improvements this year and many more are in the plans. We renovated our cross, hotel style rooms, our ball field and many more projects. I love to see camp changing for the better. We are seeking to grow our non-summer groups so that we can minister to a greater number of people. I am excited to see what God is going to do. My job continues to grow and change. More responsibilities are being added to my role as CFO, and I rise to the challenge. This summer, I had three people working under me. I am learning more leadership skills.

My ministry has also continued to grow. I have many girls that I am mentoring the whole year. During the summer, I have my home open to the summer staff. My house is full all summer. Kids hanging out or taking naps. It makes me happy that they feel safe enough to sleep there. During the off season, I have the school of ministry girls live with me.

Support raising is an amazing and humbling experience. It forces me to rely on God providing for my needs through wonderful people. Through you. Whether through finances or prayers, you are the reason that I can have the ministry that I do. Thank you for your support! You are such a huge blessing in my life. God always provides for my needs. Earlier this year, I was getting to the point of needing a car. And He blessed me through a supporter and provided for that need. I am so blessed. My total monthly goal is about $1,700. Would you prayerfully consider joining my ministry financially?

Is there a way that I could be praying for you? I would love to hear from you! You are always welcome to call or stop by camp and see what God is doing here. My phone number is 970-580-1439.

Prayer requests:

- That I would work as to the Lord and seek to excel in everything
- That I would continue to grow in my mentoring role
- That I would have wisdom in leading
- That I would manage camp finances well
- That the staff would continue to grow as a team

Blessings!

Alicia ☺
